SB	7:32	A/Commr. Finn	Discussion with A/Commr. Finn, A/Commr. Flynn, C/Supt. Paradis and Baylin: - OPS has a quick response team, however they are not currently using all available resources. However, RCMP has jurisdiction for the Criminal Code Act in Canada Wide, but they do not have primary jurisdiction in the streets of Ottawa. - In the past 3-5 days, there has been a lot of police liaising, however the Emergency Act is being considered. If there's no progress in three days, we will see more severe tactics. We currently have a singular area structure, thus when resources are needed we will be able to do it from here. Therefore, we need a POU unit. We will have a GSB meeting at 09:00 am to brief everyone. In this meeting, we will be able to brief everyone and coordinate where we think we should send resources. However, if we want to send officers everywhere, we may need assistance of military. Thus, we will need to start planning where the military resources can be sent and what infrastructure needs to be put in place. Deputy Commr. Mike Duhamel informed Silver and Gold that they are preparing in case we invoke the Emergency Act. In fact, the cabinet has started working on this last night. The Commissioner has been pulled in many meetings and people have been saying she is "responsible", however we currently do not have jurisdiction. Babel activation and ensuring office of the privacy commissioner was advised of activation and strict protocols are put in place for it's use within the joint intelligence group. Record of Decision Documentation to be drafted by ATIP articulating request to be reviewed by GSB.
SB	10:30	Deputy Commr. Duhamel	The two hour reporting should come into the Gold and Silver (not Bronze).

SB	13:27	Tim Stewart	Canada David Lametti, Minister of Public Safety Marco E. L. Mendicino and President of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada and Minister of Emergency Preparedness Bill Blair will be in attendance. Third floor foyer/West Block/Parliament Hill". Tim Stewart informed C/Supt. Paradis that: "4:30 p.m. The Prime Minister will deliver remarks and hold a media availability with Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance Chrystia Freeland and Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada David Lametti. Minister of Public Safety Marco E. L. Mendicino and President of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada and Minister of Emergency Preparedness Bill Blair will be in attendance. Third floor foyer/West Block/Parliament Hill".
SM	13:15	Comms.	Regarding the Comms. Piece for the Emergency Act, the QPN is being drafted by Kevin Hattiman and legal is working on a document related to this. The press conference will start at 4:30 however, the NCS is working on the issue. Corporate Comms. has it in hand, however we are not sure if they'll be ready with lines to follow the press conference. They are trying to wrap minds around what the invocation means. They can declare the Emergency Act and then make temporary laws, but we won't know what they are until they are announced. We are working on language and looking for an operational spokesperson to provide a Sit Rep as to what was accomplished. C/Supt. Paradis will provide them with Supt. Anick Pasqua's name. *The group agreed that we should have a call tonight however, things may not have changed much based on this afternoon's press conference but we will need to have it going forward.

SB	15:30	DCFP	Decision to deploy National Div TSG to Parliament Hill in preparation for the media appearance by the PM.
SB	15:00	Joint Intel Group	Emergency reports as needed. Joint Intel Group decided on one national intel report at 08:30 and an update at 17:00; no longer following two hour cycle.
SM	14:02	A/Commr. Arcand	A/Commr. Arcand shared that the information in real time does exist. C/Supt. Sorab is sharing the last message that went to him to Sandy Harvey as we speak. However, C/Supt. Sorab and Sandy Harvey should receive messages at the same time. Silver and Gold would like to receive updates, only if they are useful. Thus, Sorab was asked to forward the information in an email and send it to Silver and Gold. Sean McGillis shared that Sorab informed him that he is not feeding the information directly to the Commissioner's office. Instead, he is going up to them directly through Wendy Clement. The issue is that the Commissioner goes to a meeting downtown and everyone is receiving instantaneous updates and they would like to know why she is not receiving the same thing. In fact, the Commissioner needs to know the real time information prior to going into a meeting, especially since she is challenged with things that are on social media. We need to provide more comprehensive context to information that's being provided and we will duplicate it to a certain extent. We need to establish some information that is shared between command post in Ottawa, Edmonton, Alberta and other hotspots. In fact, having that connectivity and interaction there along with the Divisions might help to get useful information that can then be collated. Sandy Harvey suggested that instead of having one Sit Rep, maybe we can go to 08:30 and 17:00. These Sit Rep will contain a more comprehensive picture of what is happening throughout the day. That way, we can go to the Divisions once a day instead of sending them many requests. C/Supt. Paradis shared that she thought Silver's role was mainly strategic. For instance, if we are going to Emerson, we will brief everyone on a national level. In fact, she sees two Sit Rep being more beneficial. Furthermore, it was shared that all intel should be directed to the structure instead of handling things ad hoc.
